

The Journey of Cove Homes

With over 40 years' experience in the building industry, today we are made up of a strong team who are driven on delivering the highest standard in design to create outstanding new homes. With attentive planning and exceptional care and attention, we combine the resources and support of a long-established organisation with the attention to detail presented by a family run company.